NUMBER 35

AN ACT

To Regulate The carrying, Moving, Delivering, Transferring Or Distributing Of Intoxicating Liquors In Local Option Districts.

The following bill was passed in the House at Frankfort on Wednesday and reported to the Senate on Thursday. It, as all other bills originating in the House was at this late date of the session given to the Committee on Rules. As the majority of this committee is regarded as antagonistic to temperance, it will not be apt to come to a vote, unless by a vote.

We insert it to show the temperance sentiment in the House. The outlook for the future is bright.

It shall be unlawful for any person, persons, individual or corporation, public or private carrier to bring into, transfer to other person or persons, corporation, carrier or agent; deliver or distribute, in any county, district, precinct, town or city, where the sale of intoxicating liquors has been prohibited, or may be prohibited, whether by special act of the General Assembly, or by vote of the people under the Local Option Law, any spirituous, vinous, malt or other intoxicating liquor, regardless of the name by which it may be called; and this act shall apply to all packages of such intoxicating liquors whether broken or unbroken.

Provided, individuals may bring into such district, upon their person or as their personal baggage, and for their private use, such liquors in quantity not to exceed one gallon; and provided, the provisions of this act shall not apply to licensed physicians or druggists, to whom any public carrier may deliver such goods, in unbroken packages, in quantity not to exceed five gallons at any one time.

Each package of such spirituous, vinous, malt or other intoxicating liquor, regardless of the name by which it may be called, whether broken or unbroken packages, brought into and transferred to other person, corporation, carrier or agent, delivered or distributed in such Local Option Territory shall constitute a separate offense. Any person or persons, individual or corporation, public or private carrier violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty

"SHOOT."

"Or Give Up The Gun To One Who Will."

"Don't make a pretense. If you intend to hunt tigers, go into the jungle, or else get off your elephant and throw aside your gun. Don't bring a man before you who knows nothing about what you want to know."

These were the words with which Circuit Judge Parker of Lexington brought the attention of the grand jury to the pool rooms and the violations by the barrooms of the Sunday closing law.

With regard to the sale of liquor on Sunday, Judge Parker said it was not a matter of opinion as to the wisdom of the law. The statutes provide for the closing of saloons on Sundays, and this law, he said, should either be enforced or repealed.

We are acting like children. It is not intelligent to make laws and then violate them. It is folly and child's play. The laws are on the books, the courts won't enforce them, the Legislature won't repeal them. We seem to have lost all sense of propriety."

On the question of poolrooms Judge Parker said he intended to submit this question to a petit jury, and that he was determined to have the people of Fayette county decide this matter, as he was unwilling to assume this responsibility.

"If pool selling be right," said the court, "it is better that the Legislature legalize it; if it is not right, it ought to be suppressed and the law enforced. All that I have done has not availed, and it is my purpose to allow the petit jury to say what the punishment shall be."

"Gentlemen, if you want to permit the poolrooms to operate, make the fine one cent; if you want to suppress them, punish the operators with a jail sentence. This will stop it. I am not one of those who believe that a man who bets and wins money is dishonest, but I do believe that there is nothing which will more certainly destroy the moral nature of your boy. It seems to me, gentlemen, that this consideration should be enough to cause you to enforce the law, if your oaths should not lead you to enforce it."

"Is your husband an even tempered man?"

"Yes," answered Mrs. Corntossel, "He's jes' about as cross one day as another." —Washington Star.

The Chicago City Council, by a vote 40 to 25, raised the saloon license from $500 a year to $1,000. The city now has 7017 saloons. Alas, alas.

An offer of $125,000 from John D. Rockefeller for a hospital for children suffering from tuberculosis was announced by R. Fulton Cutting.

Local Option Election.

The local option election recently called at Millersburg, and call for which was found to be defective owing to the fact that no provision was made for a special registration, was reconsidered in Judge Dundon's Court and an order entered calling the election for Wednesday, May 9, and providing for a special registration on Tuesday, May 1.

The Wife—Doctor, can you do anything for my husband?

The Doctor—What is the matter?

The Wife—Worrying about money.

The Doctor—Oh I can relieve him of that, all right.—CARSELS.

Ascum—I see there is some talk of having the people vote at the next State election upon the question of abolishing capital punishment?

Fogle—No, sir! Capital punishment was good enough for my ancestors, and it's good enough for me.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

ANNOUNCEMENT

We are authorized to announce that the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company will be in operation on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad on the 1st of November.

We are authorized to announce that the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company will be in operation on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad on the 1st of November.

A SPOKE

If a demand for excellent houses, for business houses, the building of residences, business houses, the surveying and locating of a new electric line, the grading of the construction of a new open house means anything at all, it is just possible, and Mr. Sterling is on a roll.

The building formerly known as the Masonic Temple and which is now owned by the Old Kentucky is almost entirely completed. The stone work is modern and spacious and the entire building from basement to the third story is convenient, bright and cheerful is a great improvement over the imposing Masonic Temple that was gone is faster more than a year ago. Since that time there has been from the other side of the best new buildings of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad and Co. at the corner of Main street and on Main street are the two handsome stone houses of D. H. Tinsley, Judge H. Clay McKee's mother's room occupied by John P. Jones and the room of the Masonic Temple one of which is occupied by Robert C. Macle.

In addition to the imposing structure, and which speak well for the increase in business at Mr. Sterling is the occupancy of the Mitchell rooms by Hudson & Sons. This is one of the most attractive furnishings in the city. The new buildings on Bank street are occupied by active business concerns. Many of the buildings are well as we would not pass here. Verily Mr. Sterling is fast going forward, holding his reputation as one of the most prosperous business cities of the south.

BETTER YOURSELVES CITIZENS.

A modest suggestion to our enterprising business people and by the province our we do not limit to Mr. Sterling but to the entire county that we might be able to locate one of the normal schools provided for by the present Legislature at this point would put them on a brick air to obtain a liberal offer. We know of none better than to purchase of Judge H. Clay McKee his present occupancy the typical school site, the former residence property of ex-Chief Justice B. J. Peters. The grounds are adequate, of high elevation with a look out to the beautiful mountain scenery eastward and the picturesque bluegrass to the North and West. Such an offer we are sure would induce favorable consideration and if the best interests of the school are considered it certainly would be brought to Mr. Sterling, a bluegrass site identified with the interests of Eastern Kentucky. This school at Mr. Sterling would insure a large patronage possibly larger than could be gotten at any other point.

COMING.

The two-cent railroad rate is on in Ohio, but for lack of united effort with the newspaper fraternity a 14-cent rate would have been a Kentucky law.

Has grain crops are looking blue.

"JOHN AND JOHN."

Our friend John makes our best and best amount of Post Office money and money. We provide his political friend will cause his interest in John's interest in the Post Office. We saw him last night and made up. Look out for the public with you.

OUR ADVERTISING OFFICE.

John says: "The next to the door of the Post Office after it had been closed for the night and disturbed the clerk while they were counting the cash and balancing the day's business as in preparing for tomorrow's mail. A man who is an over-enthusiast or over-zealous in his work is not a competent critic of the conduct of others."

We did not know they were counting the cash, but did know they were accommodating a street car when we had never seen entered the lobby of Post Office while we were there. It was anxious to get important mail. Thinking Mr. Kirkpatrick would not hesitate to accommodate a stranger. We explained to him what we wanted and he kindly responded. We presented Mr. Kirkpatrick and John and John gave us the way out after our call. Well, "the good."

In recognition of our kindness, the stranger invited us to go into the lobby. We declined with thanks. Had we known that John and John would have taken our connection with this affair so seriously we might have arranged with the stranger for some to take some more. Next time this happens we will remember them.

WRITE ATTORNEYS IN ADVANCE.

John says: "As a matter of information we will say that the Rules authorizing the Post Master to close the lobby while the mail is being opened if the crowd is disorderly, and we are authorized to say that this rule will be enforced if the Advocate insists upon it."

Really we did not know that we were so influential with the powers that be.

Close up if you like, you have our consent. We can stand it if the public can. We advocate peace and order.

"TRUST AND SOCIAL."

FOR ALLKAY.

So John refers to our comments. The decision of John to his political friend is really beautiful, especially since they knew and made up. He says further:

"The writer of the above (quoting from our first article) professes to be fair and just in all things but this statement is neither fair nor accurate."

We referred to closing of office after arrival of mails from Sturgis, Roswell, North Middletown, Lexington and Ashland or other cities.

He no doubt intends to say that our remarks apply only to some of these places. We accept this correction and apologize to John and also the authorities at Washington against whom our complaint was made as referred to as allowing Mr. Hall to do so and so. The public know a few things. If our apologize is not as full as our reported attack, we will cheerfully make further amends. We hope that the suggestions and comments for three weeks are not in vain.

RETURNED TO KENTUCKY COURTS.

The Caleb Powers case taken to the Supreme Court of the United States and is sent back to Kentucky by unanimous opinion against transfer, Justice Harlan delivering the opinion. The case comes back to the State courts.

Since the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Caleb Powers case, Refugees, W. K. Taylor will lay the closer to Hoorlodon.

Red land is being turned.

Many days have gone from Eastern Kentucky streams into the bushes.

The electric railroad line from Park via North Middletown to Mt. Sterling is assured.

There is talk of an automobile line being put in operation between Mayfield and Mt. Sterling connecting with the line being operated now from Mayfield to Flemingsburg. There may also be a similar service between there and Flemingsburg.

CHANGE OF ROCK.

The city Council propose to improve the condition of our streets by using the red stone from Mayfield. As we thought this will be the means of going away with much mud and dirt at this period of the year, and in our opinion it will. This is a move in the right direction. Could we not also direct brick on the heavy part of the city.

COURT DAY.

Everybody should come to town next Monday, court day, to see the stock and crops and help along all kinds of court day business. Those persons knowing themselves indebted to the American Farm Loan Co. would secure a hearty welcome at their place of business on that day. Consult the labels on your papers and come around with the cash.

FLATTERED OUT.

This report that made its rounds that Judge Cooper had withdrawn from the Congressional race has been fattened just to a thinness that it would require a microscope to discover it. The judge is receiving evidence of hearty recognition and he is so much encouraged that he feels the race has been won.

SERIOUSLY.

Facts and Observations of the Advocate and the editor of the Gazette are spending much time examining their English vocabulary to the presence of themselves and amusement of others in picking snappings, explaining and teaching.

The one antagonistic to the management of the Mt. Sterling post-office and the other as a defendant of same. If these quill-driving prodigies would save their quill and giving the valuable time they utilized to the more remunerative phases of their callings it might prove an antidote to a nervous-prostrated public who in their dreamland visions behold fatal duels with the terrorizing butcher-knives and other weapons of race extinction. Better kiss and make up before something is doing.

Remember Men Complete of Kentucky and Opponents Before Being Our Best Points.

"Oh, I never saw with reaction as this" as a Kentucky citizen a few weeks ago, when the wind was blowing.

"Your memory is bad," said the editor of the Knights 40 T. Free Press. "Van Wert. We have had this kind of weather about this time of the year, every year of the 10 years since the opening of Oklahoma to settlement. I regret, also, to note that we have had even more disagreeable weather than this as far as has been known. My dear old friend, I lived in Kansas 20 years before I came to Oklahoma. We always every year about this time, had the same sort of weather there. So, you see, I have been seeing and enjoying this windy, dry and dusty weather for about 20 years. I like it—would be lost without it."

"Well, it's not very nice, any how, is it?" said the old citizen. "No, it is not very nice, but a little water and snow and a clouded sky will remove all traces of it in a few minutes after our problems. What's the use of complaining about? When did you come from anyhow?"

"I came from Indiana," responded the old citizen.

"You did, did you?" I came from Indiana, too," said the editor. "I was born and raised in Indiana. That is a great state, and a good one, but do you remember, any friend, that winter begins in the middle of October and lasts until April in Indiana? That the ground is covered a good part of the winter with snow from one to three feet deep? That the farmers of the winter the mud and slush were so deep that travel by wagon was practically suspended? That all the farmers had to wait in the winter to chop wood, build fire, feed and water the live stock? Do you know, or have you forgotten, that in Indiana during August and September, the dust in the fields rose from two to six inches deep, white and fine as flour, and rises in the wake of a wagon so dense and stifling that one cannot breathe? Occasionally it blows, in Indiana—blows three feet in diameter up by the roof? You came from Indiana, did you? Well, that's a good, honest, rich old state—I love it because I was born and grew up there—but what a howler talk to me and condescend about a little wind and dust in Oklahoma, it makes me a little tired."

ACHIEVED BY COLLEGE GIRL.

Crosses Continent and Supports Himself in New York Purdy as an Experiment.

The enterprise and independence of the average American girl were well shown when two lady graduates at a university in the western states crossed the continent to New York and lived there by their own exertions for several months.

It was purely an experiment, an adventure partly as a response to a challenge by some of the male graduates, the arrangement being that the girls were to write home regularly, but not to be written to unless they were in need of help.

They had some strange adventures. At a situation sought by one of them, for example, the duties consisted in minding five children, waiting on seven boarders, doing housework, laundry work and conducting a religious meeting.

Later on one became a parlor maid, and the other a lady's maid, and difficult and perilous as their experiences had been, they proved the possibility of college girls earning their own living in a strange city.

Mohammedans.

Trustworthy statisticians declare that there are 250,000,000 Mohammedans in the world. The Christian population is put at 417,000,000, but the increase of Islam is more rapid than that of the combined Christian denominations.

That section 2566 of the Kentucky Statutes, is being a portion of article 1, of chapter 51, of the Kentucky Statutes, entitled "Liquors, Intoxicating," be, and the same is hereby, repealed, and in lieu thereof it is hereby enacted:

(a) "No election in any town, city, district or precinct of a county shall be held under this article on the same day on which an election for the entire county is held, except that cities of the 1, 2, 3 and 4th class may hold an election on the same day on which an election for the entire county is held. If at such an election for the entire county a majority of the legal votes cast are in favor of the sale, barter or loan of any such liquors, such election shall not operate to make it legal to grant license to sell, barter or loan such liquors in any territorial division of such county from which the sale, barter or loan has been excluded by an election held under this article, or by special act, but the status of such territorial divisions shall remain as if no such election had been held.

(b) "No election shall be held in any election precinct under this act on the same day on which an election is held for the district or city of which the precinct is a part. If at an election held for such entire district or city, the majority of legal votes cast shall be in favor of the sale, barter or loan of spirituous, vinous, malt or other liquors, then the status in the several precincts thereof shall remain as it was before said election; but if the majority should be against the sale, then the sale, barter or loan of such liquors shall be unlawful in every portion of said district or city."

FACTS IN NATURE.

Not Only Do We Get Inspiration From Nature, But Health as Well.

For people who are run-down and nervous, who suffer from indigestion or dyspepsia, headache, biliousness, or torpid liver, coated tongue with bitter taste in the morning and poor appetite, it becomes necessary to turn to some tonic or strengthener which will assist Nature in her work and help them to get on their feet and put the body into its proper condition. It is becoming more and more apparent that Nature's most valuable health-giving agents are to be found in forest plants and roots.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. R. V. Pierce, now consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., discovered that by scientifically extracting and combining certain medicinal principles from native roots, taken from our American forests, he could produce a medicine which was marvelously efficient in curing cases of blood disorder and liver and stomach trouble as well as many other chronic or lingering ailments. This concentrated extract of Nature's vitality he named "Golden Medical Discovery." It purifies the blood by putting the stomach and liver into healthy condition, thereby helping the digestion and assimilation of food which feeds the blood. Thereby it cures weak stomach, indigestion, torpid liver, or biliousness, and kindred derangements.

If you have coated tongue, with bitter or bad taste in the morning, frequent headaches, feel weak, easily tired, stitches or pain in side, back gives out easily and soles, belching of gas, constipation, or irregular bowels, feel flashes of heat alternating with chilly sensations or other symptoms, they point to derangement of your stomach, liver and kidneys, which the "Golden Medical Discovery" will correct more speedily and permanently than any other known agent. Contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed in plain English on wrapper.

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make a little more profit. He gains; you lose. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pills. One laxative; two or three are cathartic.

The Misses Wood sang sweetly; Dyke Duty received hearty applause; Miss Kingsolvin made a charming young widow; The Misses Clark from the country skillfully played the mandolin and guitar. "The bald headed man" was well recited by Miss Herriott. The audience enjoyed Miss Samuels' delicate touch on the piano. Others more exorcised who took part were Messrs. A. A. Hazelrigg, G. B. Senff, Outz and Curry. Misses Nesbitt, Donohue, and Mrs. Maury and Mrs. Sharpe.

Jas. H. Cline has passed a satisfactory examination as railway engineer and has been put in charge of an engine on C. & O. He and wife have, in consequence, moved to Lexington.

Frozen Ants Better Than Lemonade—A Week's Fare of Red Squirrels—Some Relish Hedgehogs.

Skilled men are employed to travel through the Maine woods on snowshoes all winter for the purpose of estimating the value of the standing growth and to pick up sites for lumber camps. Through information furnished by these men the proprietors of the timber lands are able to fix the stumpage rate to be charged.

Cruisers is the name by which such men are known. They go for weeks at a time without seeing a human being. They carry their food in packs strapped to their backs, and sleep under brush shelters before open fires built among snowdrifts.

"There is no need of a healthy man's going hungry in the Maine woods," said Orion Southworth, who has acted as head cruiser for a lumber firm for the past eight years. "Give a cruiser a good gun, a thick blanket, a small ax, a frying pan and a few matches, and he can pick up his own living anywhere in the spruce forest."

"Last winter when I was reduced to two pounds of hardtack and four pounds of bacon, a sneaking bobcat crept up on me while I slept and stole all my bacon from a limb above my head, compelling me to forage for almost a week. I lived like a king, having three meals a day, and coming out to the nearest camp in fine condition. "My diet was fat red squirrels dressed and washed and roasted on the end of a limb hung above the frying pan, which rested on hot coals. It took from six to ten squirrels to make a square meal, but the meat was sweet and tender, and the fat which dripped from the cooking bodies into the hot frying pan was just the food I needed to fortify me against the cold."

"When I was cruising in Michigan one winter I learned that the state had protected hedgehogs by law, so as to have them increase and furnish food for the cruisers, but I am not fond of hedgehog flesh as a steady diet. Hedgehogs are lazy and stupid creatures that may be killed with a club. Their meat is sweet and white and tender, but the fat portions of the bodies carry a parasite as big as a horseshoe nail.

"In my cruises I have eaten and relished nearly everything that walks or creeps or swims or flies in Maine. I have probed open springs of water until I had secured enough fat frogs for a meal. I have shivered with cold and hunger until I had caught a mess of pickerel through the ice.

"I have eaten and relished roasted bobcat, muskrat, skunk, fox, mink, fisher and beaver. I have filled my pockets with shelled acorns and beechnuts from the boards of chipmunks and been glad to eat them.

"Often when hungry and feverish from long tramps I have chopped holes into the sides of dead birches and picked out the great frozen ants and made a lunch of their bodies. They have a pleasing sour taste which is very refreshing when one is thirty. On the whole, I think frozen ants are more pleasing than the iced lemonade one buys at the drug stores."

Out of a Flying Machine. When Milky Way Naine, the aeronaut, fell several hundred feet and landed on top of Spike Hennessy's saloon the air patrol flew to gather him up. Just before he expired he asked:

"What was that building I fell on?"

"A saloon," was the reply.

"That was the house," he said, feebly, and passed away.—Minneapolis Journal.

Going for Peter's Pay. Taking as his text the fact that the president of the United States receives only $50,000 a year, M. Stejanovic, a nationalist member, proposed in the Belgrade skuptschina the other day that King Peter's civil list should be reduced from $240,000 to $160,000. It will be recalled that King Peter ascended the throne of Serbia through the murder of King Alexander.

RELIGIOUS

A "Living Link" Church is one which supports a missionary of its own. In the Christian Church there are 71 such congregations represented on the Foreign Field a "Living Link" church. Nine of these are in Kentucky. Central and Broadway churches, Lexington, Paris, Winchester, Richmond, Danville, Frankfort, Hopkinsville, and Owensboro.

Lexington is planning for a great meeting of the Southern Educational Conference which meets there April 1 to 3.

Tuesday night John H. Blount and W. T. Tyner were ordained as deacons of the Mt. Sterling Baptist church.

At Paducah last week there were 114 additions to the First Baptist church making more than 900 since the beginning of the meeting. Rev. C. C. Cates, a preacher of great faith is conducting the meeting.

State Missionary, Rev. Powell is holding a meeting with Immortal Baptist church Louisville, meeting just begun, 27 additions.

Dr. B. D. Gray well known here and former president of Georgetown College, now Correspondent of the Home Board of Southern Baptist was in a union meeting of Louisville Baptist at the Walnut street church last Sunday. The Dr. is proposing much for Kentucky Baptists who will help themselves.

The meeting at the Baptist church increases in interest and it now appears that Mt. Sterling is at the beginning of a revival interest. May the day of salvation for Mt. Sterling be now and may God give us a "Paducah like" meeting.

Dr. Hines preaching is illustrative, plain and practical, the gospel is presented interestingly and with unusual power. He is also a beautiful gospel singer. To these meetings every unconverted person is invited. Many warnings have come to Mt. Sterling sinners the past year and the opportunity is given now to choose whom they will serve, God and live in glory for ever or the evil one and be cast into outer darkness. The Christian people ask all business men to close their houses and give their employees chance to attend the preaching of the word, and this modest request we are sure will be observed. Let every business house including factories, saloons, shops, stores, professional offices all be closed promptly at 7 o'clock.

At the recent Sunday School Conference in this city Mr. T. C. Gebauer gave valuable suggestions, both in his talks and by charts. Here are some of them:

A STANDARD SUNDAY SCHOOL: Where every member is present punctually. Comes with his own bible, liberal offering, studied lessons, mind to learn and will to obey. Let all will, work, win.
